

INVITATION FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

The President Judge of each Judicial District in Pennsylvania, including the undersigned, has been directed to submit a proposal to the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts concerning reestablishment, realignment, and/or elimination of Magisterial Judicial Districts within the Judicial District. The plan to be submitted will maintain the current districting. Prior to submission, public comment is invited.

The undersigned is therefore inviting public comment on the following issues:

- (1) Shall all four (4) of Armstrong County's Magisterial Districts be reestablished "as is."
- (2) Shall any two (2) or more of Armstrong County's four (4) Magisterial Districts be realigned?
- (3) Shall the number of Magisterial Districts in Armstrong County be reduced from four (4) to three (3) through attrition, upon the death or retirement of any current Magisterial District Judge?

Comments to these issues must be in writing. The name and address of the commentor must be legible. The comment should also state the position of the commentor, such as township supervisor, chief of police, business owner, resident, etc.

The written comments will be forward to the AOPC together with the recommendations of the undersigned. A written comment may be mailed or hand delivered to the Office of the Court Administrator, Armstrong County Courthouse, 500 E. Market Street, Suite 200, Kittanning, PA 16201. Comments may also be emailed to the Court Administrator @ sadavis@co.armstrong.pa.us.

Comments must be received by February 21, 2022.

President Judge
Thirty-Third Judicial District
Armstrong County, Pennsylvania
